Specific information about the website

Use of a newsletter

When registering for our newsletter you provide us with your e-mail address and optionally further data. We use this information exclusively to send you the newsletter. Your data entered during the newsletter registration will remain stored until you unsubscribe from our newsletter. You can unsubscribe at any time via the link provided in the newsletter or by sending us a corresponding message. By unsubscribing you object to the use of your e-mail address.

Your e-mail address, which we receive in connection with the sale of goods or services, will be used exclusively for direct advertising in the form of our newsletter for our own similar goods or services as those ordered by you, provided that you have not objected to this use. You can object to the use of your e-mail address at any time without incurring any costs other than the transmission costs according to the basic rates. Your objection (and thus the cancellation of our newsletter) can be exercised by sending a corresponding message to our e-mail address (see imprint).

Use of Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service of Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer to help analyse how you use the website. The information generated by the cookie about your use of this website is usually transferred to a Google server in the USA and stored there. However, if IP anonymisation is activated on this website, Google will shorten your IP address within Member States of the European Union or in other countries party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area beforehand. Only in exceptional cases will the full IP address be transmitted to a Google server in the USA and shortened there. On behalf of the operator of this website, Google will use this information to evaluate your use of the website, to compile reports on website activity and to provide the website operator with other services relating to website and Internet use. The IP address transmitted by your browser in the context of Google Analytics is not merged with other Google data. You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser, however, please note that if you do this you may not be able to use the full functionality of this website. You can also prevent Google from collecting the data generated by the cookie and relating to your use of the website (including your IP address) and from processing this data by downloading and installing the browser plug-in available under the following Link. In view of the discussion about the use of analysis tools with complete IP addresses, we would like to point out that this website uses Google Analytics with the extension "_anonymizeIp()" and therefore IP addresses are only processed further in abbreviated form in order to exclude direct personal reference. For browsers on mobile devices in particular, please click this Link to prevent anonymous collection by Google Analytics on this website for your browser using an "opt-out cookie".

Google AdWords Conversion Tracking

This website uses Google AdWords Conversion Tracking, a web analysis service provided by Google Inc. ("Google"). Google AdWords Conversion Tracking also uses "cookies", which are stored on your computer and enable an analysis of your use of the website. The information generated by the cookie about your use of this website will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties if this is required by law or if third parties process this data on behalf of Google. Under no circumstances will Google associate the data with other Google data. You can generally prevent the use of cookies if you prohibit the storage of cookies in your browser.
